Project Description

According to the bank document, "the Project involves the restart of operations of DAP's oleochemical plant, which is currently mothballed, and the expansion of its facilities and production capacity. The Project facilities will utilize crude palm oil, palm kernels and palm kernel oil as raw material feedstocks for their oleochemical production processes.

The total annual combined capacity will be approximately 200,000 metric tons of fatty acid and fatty alcohol. The plan has kernel crushing capabilities of approximately 160,000 metric tons per year and refining capacity of approximately 500,000 metric tons per year. Supporting facilities will include a 2.7 km jetty, which is partially built, and a 22 MW natural gas-fired power station that will supply electricity for the Project operation.

The Project is located on a land area of approximately 114 ha in the industrial estate of Kuala Tanjung, approximately 120 km southeast of the city of Medan in North Sumatra, Indonesia".
