Environmental and Social Impact Assessment for Myronivsky Hliboproduct (MHP

Project Description

According to the bank document, "The Project involves the expansion of MHP's Vinnytsia Poultry Farm. MHP Group is a vertically integrated agribusiness and food company undertaking a wide range of activities from grain production, to animal rearing and to meat production. Proceeds from the OPIC guaranteed loan will be used to construct nine new rearing complexes, a new wastewater treatment plant, a 17 km by-pass road, and completion of construction and purchase of equipment for the existing hatchery, fodder plant, slaughterhouse, and rendering facilities.

The Project will include land acquisition for the nine new rearing complexes. MHP will lease land from private landowners. The land acquisition may result in economic displacement, the extent of which is not yet known.
