Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project consists of this PPP project concerns the design, financing, construction, facility management and operation of:

- student accommodation of the University of West Attica, and

- supporting educational and cultural facilities.

The new student accommodation facilities will cover existing and future housing gaps and will reduce the financial burden resulting from renting a house – a condition particularly demanding in West Attica. The supporting catering facilities will cover the existing and emerging needs for the students who will reside in the premises and for those who have the right to free catering service based on socio-economic criteria. The Project also aims at providing energy efficient building facilities, bringing together the activities of the University and having a positive impact on the educational experience of the students.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at: http://www.ebrd.com/eform/pcm/complaint_form?language=en

You can learn more about the PCM and how to file a complaint at: http://www.ebrd.com/work-with-us/project-finance/project-complaint-mechanism.html
