Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project consists of the provision of a three-year senior loan (MSME Loan II) of up to US$ 10 million in the local currency equivalent to Ipak Yuli Bank (IYB), a major private bank in Uzbekistan. The Loan will be provided under the Financial Intermediaries Framework (FIF). Loan proceeds will be on-lent to local small and medium companies and private entrepreneurs as per the eligibility criteria defined in the Policy Statement for SMEs.

The MSME Loan II will enable Ipak Yuli Bank to maintain diversification of its funding base, extend duration of its liabilities and expand financing of MSMEs in Uzbekistan at a multiple of the EBRD financing.

Investment Description

- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)

USD 10,000,000.00 - A three-year senior unsecured loan of up to US$ 10 million equivalent provided in a single tranche in the synthetic local currency (Uzbek Sum).

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at:
