Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project consists of a Resilience and Livelihoods Guarantee ("RLG"), under the Resilience and Livelihoods Framework ("RLF"), in the form of an unfunded portfolio risk-sharing facility covering up to 50 per cent of the credit risk in sub-loans with the total value of EUR 70 million equivalent (the "Covered Portfolio") to be originated by JSC ProCredit Bank Ukraine ("PCBU", the "PFI") in Ukraine.

The RLG project will be delivered in two equal tranches each including EUR 8.75 million of EBRD's guarantee to cover EUR 35 million of the Covered Portfolio with Tranche B being uncommitted.

The project will include a sub-limit under the SME Competitiveness and Inclusion programme in the European Union's Eastern Partnership blended programme within the Financial Intermediaries Framework ("EaP SMECI Sub-limit", assigned with a separate EBRD project number 55311) of up to EUR 10.5 million or 15% of the Covered Portfolio (jointly the "Project" or "Facility") to finance long term capital investments of micro-, small-, and medium sized enterprises ("MSMEs") to upgrade their technologies and equipment to EU standards, including investments in sustainable and green technologies (at least 70% of EaP SMECI sub-limit), thereby enhancing businesses' competitiveness. Eligible sub-borrowers will also receive EU funded technical assistance and grant support in the form of investment incentives upon the completion of their investment projects.

The Facility will be used to support lending to Ukrainian private companies operating in the primary and secondary agriculture and other critical industries (inter alia food processing, retail, logistics), with the ultimate goal of preserving livelihoods in Ukraine.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at:
