Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project consists of the provision of a senior unsecured loan of up to EUR 20 million, or equivalent in MAD, in favour of Attawfiq Micro-Finance (the "Company" or "AMF") under the Youth in Business ("YIB") programme to support Moroccan micro, small and medium-sized enterprises (MSMEs) owned or led by young entrepreneurs under 35 years of age, with a focus on the ones located in the regions affected by the 8th September 2023 earthquake.

The project aims at opening up economic opportunities of underserved Moroccan young entrepreneurs, building on the idea that MSMEs owned or led by youth under 35 years of age represent a unique market opportunity for the Moroccan financial sector and a unique vehicle to increase financial inclusion. Furthermore, the project will also contribute to the recovery and the reconstruction of the region affected by the September 2023 earthquake by leveraging on AMF's unique outreach in the region.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

Categorised FI (ESP 2024). Attawfiq Microfinance is a new client of the EBRD. Eligible subprojects will support microfinance, which are likely to be of low environmental and social (E&S) risk. The main E&S risks relate to potential impacts arising from the financed subloans.

Investment Description

- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)

A senior unsecured loan of up to EUR 20 million, or equivalent in MAD, under the Youth in Business ("YIB") programme.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project.

If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at:
