Project Description

As stated by the EBRD, the project consists of a senior unsecured loan to Türkiye Sinai Kalkınma Bankası A.S. (TSKB) in the amount of EUR 75 million for on lending to companies that promote inclusive policies and practices. At least 15% of the loan will be allocated to "youth-inclusive" companies that implement policies and practices to support youth employment. In addition, at least 15% of the loan will be allocated to companies operating/investing in the earthquake-affected regions. The remaining portion will be allocated to "women-inclusive" companies, which implement inclusive policies and practices to support women employment and leadership.

The loan will be the first cooperation between EBRD and TSKB on inclusive finance area, combining multiple elements, namely: women-inclusive financing under TSKB's established and proven framework, a pioneering youth employment focus, and targeted financing for the earthquake-affected regions to support the preservation and rebuilding of livelihoods, jobs, and human capital in the region.

The project will include a TC component, under which the consultant will deliver capacity building trainings for sub-borrowers on inclusive HR practices. The trainings will help building awareness around inclusive HR practices and developing sub-borrower capacity to adopt and implement these initiatives.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at:
