Project Description

According to bank provided information, the investments involves the provision of a senior unsecured loan of up to EGP 600 million (ca. USD 12.7 million) in favour of U Consumer Finance (the "Company" or "ValU") for green investments in Egypt. The loan will facilitate investments in green, eligible technologies aimed at climate change mitigation for individuals. The aim is to expand green consumer finance lending to retail customers by improving access to financing for climate-resilient products and environmentally friendly technologies.

The loan will focus on projects in the residential sector and electric vehicles that enhance energy efficiency, promote small-scale renewable energy adoption, and support the deployment of eligible technologies as listed in the EBRD Green Technology Selector (GTS), contributing to a sustainable, low-carbon emissions pathway.

Investment Description

- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EBRD

The Project Complaint Mechanism (PCM) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)-financed project.

If you submit a complaint to the PCM, it may assess compliance with EBRD's own policies and procedures to prevent harm to the environment or communities or it may assist you in resolving the problem that led to the complaint through a dialogue with those implementing the project. Additionally, the PCM has the authority to recommend a project be suspended in the event that harm is imminent.

You can contact the PCM at: pcm@ebrd.com or you can submit a complaint online using an online form at:

http://www.ebrd.com/eform/pcm/complaint_form?language=en

You can learn more about the PCM and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.ebrd.com/work-with-us/project-finance/project-complaint-mechanism.html>
