Project Description

According to the EIB, the framework loan will finance the expansion of Banco do Brasil's renewable energy and energy efficiency portfolios to support the Global Gateway Investment Agenda priorities in Brazil.

The operation will also support the intermediary's lending portfolio to small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and mid-caps under a multiple beneficiary intermediated loan (MBIL).

By supporting investments into renewable energy and energy efficiency, the project is expected to contribute to the EIB's objectives under the Targeted Green Economy Facility (TGEF) by promoting climate change mitigation. The operation is well aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 7 (Affordable and Clean Energy) and 13 (Climate Action). The operation will also contribute to the EIB's priority objectives for energy sector lending related to renewable energy sources and energy efficiency measures, in line with the EIB's Energy Lending Criteria and its Climate Action objectives.

The operation will generate environmental benefits by supporting renewable energy and energy efficiency investments that help mitigate climate change. It will be compliant with the EIB Environmental and Social Standards.

It is expected that the beneficiaries of the schemes under this Framework Loan will be predominantly private entities and therefore subject to private procurement regime. However, it cannot be excluded that some schemes could be classified as public for procurement purposes. Schemes that are subject to local content requirements will not be eligible for the EIB's financing. In any case, the Financial Intermediary will be required to take all the requisite measures to ensure that the procurement procedures are carried out in accordance with the EIB's Guide to Procurement.

Investment Description

- European Investment Bank (EIB)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF EIB

The EIB Complaints Mechanism is designed to facilitate and handle complaints against the EIB by individuals, organizations or corporations affected by EIB activities. When exercising the right to lodge a complaint against the EIB, any member of the public has access to a two-tier procedure, one internal - the Complaints Mechanism Office - and one external - the European Ombudsman. A complaint can be lodged via a written communication addressed to the Secretary General of the EIB, via email to the dedicated email address: complaints@eib.org, by completing the online complaint form available at the following address: <http://www.eib.org/complaints/form>, via fax or delivered directly to the EIB Complaints Mechanism Division, any EIB local representation office or any EIB staff. For further details, check:

http://www.eib.org/attachments/strategies/complaints_mechanism_policy_en.pdf.

When dissatisfied with a complaint to the EIB Complaints Mechanism, citizens can then turn towards the European Ombudsman. A memorandum of Understanding has been signed between the EIB and the European Ombudsman establishes that citizens (even outside of the EU if the Ombudsman finds their complaint justified) can turn towards the Ombudsman on issues related to 'maladministration' by the EIB. Note that before going to the Ombudsman, an attempt must be made to resolve the case by contacting the EIB. In addition, the complaint must be made within two years of the date when the facts on which your complaint is based became known to you. You can write to the Ombudsman in any of the languages of the European Union. Additional details, including filing requirements and complaint forms, are available at:

<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu/atyourservice/interactiveguide.faces>.
