Project Description

FMO intends to fund this investment as part of this strategic effort to reach its own GHG goals while realising an acceptable risk-return level. It has been well documented that investing in (commercial) forestry and forestry related activities contributes significantly - and most efficiently - to the GHG targets. Also, forestry generates more than average (rural) employment than other productive industries.

Private Actors Description

The Africa Sustainable Forestry Fund II (ASFF II) is a private equity fund that seeks to continue the strategy as implemented by ASFF I i.e. acquiring/developing attractive assets across the forestry value chain in Africa, from plantations to industrial operations. Key objectives of ASFF II are to produce high-value building materials that are currently imported and to implement tailor-made biomass energy solutions. ASFF II will capitalise on the investment team's experience, network and platform to acquire and improve the management of FSC certified plantation assets and develop downstream manufacturing operations to produce forest products needed to meet demand driven by increased urbanisation and accelerating economic growth in Africa.
