Project Description

According to FMO's website, this project provides funding to Banco Comafi to finance small and medium-sized enterprise (SME) clients.

Investment Description

- Netherlands Development Finance Company (FMO)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

- Banco Comafi (Financial Intermediary)

Private Actors Description

Banco Comafi is a mid-sized universal bank in Argentina that offers a full range of banking services to individuals, SMEs and corporates clients, and a leading provider of long term financing through financial and operational leasing. Founded in 1985 as a broker house, the bank has successfully grown into a diversified bank, with presence in 8 provinces through 65 branches, gross loans and leases of USD 1.1 billion and more than 500,000 clients.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
