Private Actors Description

Bank Al Etihad was founded in 1978 under the name Union Bank, mostly focusing on the Corporate segment. With the support of McKinsey, it changed the name to Bank Al Etihad in 2011 and rebranded itself as a bank expanding its offering with new innovative services to tap into the Jordan's growing retail and SME markets. Bank Al Etihad ("BAE" or "the Bank") is now an established name in the Jordanian banking sector, being the 4th largest bank with 24 branches and a total asset size of USD 6.7bln. BAE has a strong focus on reducing inequalities which is demonstrated by its active membership of the Global Banking Alliance and the launch of its comprehensive program to empower female entrepreneurs. Besides the Bank, it owns a brokerage, leasing and Islamic banking company enabling it to offer a full range of services to its clients.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
