Project Description

According to the FMO, Partech Africa Fund II intends to focus on early-stage funding, providing EUR1 million to EUR15 million initial tickets to talented African teams that are using tech to address large emerging market opportunities. Partech Africa Fund II is a generalist tech fund with target industries ranging from fintech to online and mobile consumer services, as well as mobility, supply chain services and digitization of the informal economy.

Investment Description

- Netherlands Development Finance Company (FMO)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

Private Actors Description

As stated by the EIB, Partech is a global Top-Tier Venture platform with 4 main investment strategies to support tech and digital companies from Seed- to Growth-stages. The Firm has offices in Paris, Berlin, San Francisco and Dakar, and a local presence in New-York, Nairobi and Dubai. In 2017, Partech launched its Africa-focused strategy and closed its First Partech Africa Fund, which was the largest African VC Fund, dedicating capital and resources to the fast-growing tech ecosystem on the continent. Partech Africa is launching the second generation of its Partech Africa Strategy, pursuing its original strategy.

On the company's website, it is stated that Partech is a global investment platform for tech and digital companies, led by ex-entrepreneurs and operators of the industry spread across offices in San Francisco, Paris, Berlin, and Dakar.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
