Project Description

According to the bank website, the project consists of cover rental costs of a temporary warehouse to safeguard inventories from the negative impacts of the conflict in Ukraine.

FMO’s funding will enable Rozetka to continue operations and serve its customers which in turn would preserve the impact created by FMO's investment in HCGF II. Furthermore, Rozetka can support vital infrastructure in Ukraine and use its network to secure and distribute crucial supplies, including food, medicine and hygiene products, which supports Ukraine’s humanitarian agenda. This is closely aligned with FMO’s strategy to support clients in fragile contexts.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism
