Project Description

According to the Bank's website, FMO participates in Neumann Kaffee Gruppe - NKG's Smallholder Livelihood Facility (SLF) which is a part of NKG's Responsible Business Program (NKG Bloom) to source sustainably produced coffee and support the livelihoods of smallholder farmers. The SLF was established in 2019 by NKG backed by IDH, BNP Paribas, Rabobank and DFC for financing individual smallholder farmers and cooperatives.

Through its sustainability program NKG Bloom, NKG aims to reach 300,000 smallholder farmers by 2030 (currently +81,000) via its impact-backed initiative SLF. In doing so, NKG fills the financing gap that smallholder farmers face (short term to long term financing opportunities), offers technical support and other production-related services. In the end, the initiative and the partnership brings access to financial services for smallholder coffee farmers.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The E&S category is B+, due to largely reversible impacts, which can be mitigated through good management practices and Good International Industry Practice. The Company's fixed assets are mainly coffee mills, buying stations, warehouses and washing stations. Current assets as well as the supply chain show exposure to IFC Performance Standard (PS) 1 to 4 (i.e. ESMS, occupational and community health and safety, promote more sustainable use of resources, including energy and water), as well as 5 and 6 (land acquisition legacy issue and possibly biodiversity loss / deforestation through enlargement small holder plots using SLF).
