Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the investment strategy of TIDE Africa Fund II focuses on Seed and Series A investments in tech (-enabled) and digital companies. The Fund targets around 25 investments and will lead (or co-lead) transactions with initial tickets between USD 2 and 5 million.

The intended investment in TIDE II is a strong fit with FMO's objectives to empower entrepreneurs and their local communities, to support innovation, and sustainable economic development in emerging markets and to reduce inequalities. Technology can have a huge transformative impact in Africa, which has a vast untapped source of entrepreneurial energy, but lacks the necessary funding. TIDE II will make an important contribution to closing this funding gap and driving entrepreneurship and growth in Africa.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The Environmental and Social risk category of TIDE Africa Fund II is considered B. The fund will invest in early-stage tech and tech-enabled companies which are associated with low E&S risks because of the limited number of employees and limited environmental impacts. Moreover, TIDE Africa Fund II is excluded from investing in high-risk activities. The specific E&S challenges that TIDE Africa Fund II will encounter through its investments are related to data privacy and security and general labor conditions, which are properly being addressed by the fund's ESMS (Environmental and Social Management System).

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
