Project Description

According to the Bank's website, FMO and Proparco are providing a USD 125 mln senior term loan with FMO contributing USD 75 mln and Proparco contributing USD 50 mln. The flexible long-term funding facility will support CRDB in delivering its strategic objectives to grow its SME portfolio and support its purpose to improve livelihoods and deliver sustainable impact.

FMO funding will be used to on-lend to underserved segments, including CRDB's Burundi subsidiary, as well as to women-owned SMEs, agriculture businesses, and eligible green assets.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

CRDB is classified as E&S Category A bank due to a high E&S risk portfolio, both in terms of sector exposure and size. High environmental and social risk activities are concentrated particularly in agriculture, fishing, energy generation, mining, and construction. Contextual risks in these sectors revolve around habitat fragmentation, resource pollution, climate change, occupational health and safety issues, and child labor to name a few.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
