Project Description

The proposed project in Bangladesh is part of a multi-country “Global Clean Cooking Program” planned for support by the World Bank (WB) and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ)¹ with a goal to support development of an affordable and sustainable market for clean cooking initiatives.

According to website of Green Climate Fund, the Bangladesh Clean Cooking Program is aimed at supporting a sustainable market for adoption of improved cookstoves (ICS) that will contribute to improved well-being of people living in rural Bangladesh by reducing Household Air Pollution (HAP) and contribute to reduced Greenhouse gas emissions. The project has the following two components:

Component 1: It will leverage private-sector finance through purchases made by end users equivalent to the total size of the Project. The Project will finance market development activities by the purchase orders intended to enable them to rapidly increase market penetration.

Component 2: It will provide technical assistance to enhance supplier capacity on the one hand and increase the demand for ICS among end users on the other hand. Through these activities, this component will help create the necessary conditions for market growth to continue beyond the duration of the project.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF GREEN CLIMATE FUND

The Independent Redress Mechanism (IRM) addresses complaints by people who believe they are negatively affected or may be affected by projects or programmes funded by the Green Climate Fund (GCF). The complainant can raise issues related to any of GCF's policies and procedures, including those relating to social and environmental issues, indigenous peoples, gender, and information disclosure, among others. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may seek to address the issues raised by facilitating problem solving or conducting a compliance process. You can learn more about the Independent Redress Mechanism and how to file a complaint at <https://irm.greenclimate.fund/>.

You can access a video about the IRM (English) at: <https://youtu.be/1LanbriVhfs>.

A brochure about the IRM can be accessed in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Mandarin, Mongolian, Vietnamese, Russian, Ukrainian, Korean, German, and Kiswahili at: <https://irm.greenclimate.fund/>.
