Project Description

The program has great potential for enhancing resilience to agricultural practices in Ghana. The program's objective is to empower those vulnerable women groups in the most vulnerable agroecological zones in Ghana a through the provision of Lines of Credit (LoC) and Technical Assistance (TA) to participate in low-emission climate resilient agricultural (CRA) practices. Specifically, the program aims to:

i. Improve women access to affordable financing to engage in CRA practices for livelihood diversification

ii. Support De-risking instruments for the agriculture sector in Ghana

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF GREEN CLIMATE FUND

The Independent Redress Mechanism (IRM) addresses complaints by people who believe they are negatively affected or may be affected by projects or programmes funded by the Green Climate Fund (GCF). The complainant can raise issues related to any of GCF's policies and procedures, including those relating to social and environmental issues, indigenous peoples, gender, and information disclosure, among others. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may seek to address the issues raised by facilitating problem solving or conducting a compliance process. You can learn more about the Independent Redress Mechanism and how to file a complaint at https://irm.greenclimate.fund/.

You can access a video about the IRM (English) at: https://youtu.be/1LanbriVhfs.

A brochure about the IRM can be accessed in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Mandarin, Mongolian, Vietnamese, Russian, Ukrainian, Korean, German, and Kiswahili at: https://irm.greenclimate.fund/.
