Project Description

This project seeks to strengthen the employability of two main groups: vulnerable youth and women, who today do not believe employment opportunities exist for them in the knowledge economy. The project will be executed in four areas of Argentina, including Buenos Aires, Greater Buenos Aires, and two other zones of technological development in the interior of the country (to be determined). Zones with IT businesses will be prioritized. This model will work with the private sector to increase job employment opportunities for socioeconomically vulnerable youth and women. Innovative methods for strengthening the competencies demanded by the labor market (English and life skills) will be utilized, complemented by public training. Youth will be accompanied during the life of training by mentors from businesses from the corresponding sector. The proposed model will also include career counseling and job placement.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
