Project Description

The objective of this TC is to support the vertical integration of Argentina's NDC, through the incorporation of mitigation and adaptation actions to climate change in the planning and investment processes of the Socio-Urban Integration Program in Popular Districts, allowing for the strengthening of the vertical logic implementation of the NDC .

Specific objectives:1) Support in the design and preparation of projects that allow modeling future interventions with a climate change perspective.2) Develop an innovative approach to the comprehensive approach to the socio-productive problems of popular neighborhoods with a climate change perspective.3) Generate concrete knowledge that can be used for replicability in RENABAP neighborhoods across the country in terms of resilient and low carbon urban planning.4) Strengthen the technical capacities of the Secretariat of Social and Urban Integration (SISU) in terms of sustainability and climate change.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
