Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the main objective of the project is to improve access to quality public spaces and habitat in the city of La Paz and El Alto, through the construction of a 17-kilometer linear park that will integrate both cities through a network of public spaces and natural parks. This linear park will constitute a large natural green corridor that will boost active and inclusive mobility in the city and its inhabitants. Likewise, habitat will be improved in the surrounding areas, incorporating measures to adapt and mitigate climate change, including the improvement and construction of eco-efficient infrastructure.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
