Project Description

According to the IADB, this project will support the crucial role of local and traditional communities in combating deforestation through a small grants program based on calls for proposals. The project will support territorial governance and sustainable economic activities carried out by Indigenous peoples, Afro-descendants and traditional communities (IPADTCs) organizations which are essential for the conservation of Amazonia's ecosystems. Additionally, it will strengthen their autonomy and empowerment, fostering more equitable and just resource management.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IDB / IDB INVEST

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IDB Invest)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IDB Invest is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
