Investment Description

- Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

According to the Bank's website, this project finances technical cooperation to support the new National Housing Policy in Brazil. The implementing agencies will be the National Secretariat for Housing and the Ministry of Regional Development.

Specifically, this technical cooperation will provide practical guidelines for the main products of the national policy including local developments regarding: home improvements, social rental housing models, demand-orientated subsidies for home ownership, enhanced access to credit, optimisation of beneficiary selection and promotion of housing finance modernisation.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
