Project Description

According to the IADB, this technical cooperation aims to strengthen the capacity of the Ministry of Indigenous Peoples (MPI) and the National Foundation for Indigenous Peoples (FUNAI), the agencies responsible for indigenous policy, in developing the Integrated Plan for Indigenous Well-Being for the peoples of the Amazon region. Its specific objectives are: i) to support actions for the implementation of the National Policy for Territorial and Environmental Management of Indigenous Lands (PNGATI) by monitoring the implementation of the Territorial and Environmental Management Plans (PGTA) of selected indigenous lands in the Amazon region; ii) to develop recommendations for supporting and promoting an agroecology-based economy and indigenous socio-biodiversity, as well as for supporting and promoting indigenous ecological restoration initiatives; and iii) to support processes related to the regularization of indigenous lands (TI), particularly the qualification of claims and the analysis of technical documents produced during the demarcation process.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IDB / IDB INVEST

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IDB Invest)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IDB Invest is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
