Support to the Preparation of the Program for the Integration of Vulnerable Neighborhoods

Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of technical cooperation is to support the preparation of the Vulnerable Neighborhoods Integration Program of Chile's Ministry of Housing and Urbanism. The TC will support aspects related to the effectiveness of the program on issues related to the integration of migrant populations into receiving communities, resilience and mitigation related to climate change challenges, gender equality, and the support for the economic integration of resident communities. It will also generate knowledge and capabilities to address the impact of climate change on migration and risk mitigation of informal settlements.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
