Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of this TC is to measure the causal effect of a pilot initiative that includes the complementary investments in Rural Care Work in sustainable agricultural projects in Colombia, aimed at recognizing, reducing, redistributing, representing, and rewarding Rural Care Work activities. The evaluation will analyze the impact of these interventions on: (i) household income; (ii) food security; (iii) women's empowerment; (iv) women's workload; and (v) the performance of agricultural production activities. The specific objectives are: (i) to collect field data to measure the effects of the Rural Care Work pilot; (ii) to implement focus groups and other qualitative activities to thoroughly understand the analyzed effects; and (iii) to develop the impact evaluation of the complementary rural care work investments within the framework of the pilot.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
