Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of this TC is to strengthen equality and equity policies and programs aimed at women and diverse populations in Colombia, through actions that promote economic autonomy, foster the equitable redistribution of care work, improve the prevention and response to gender-based violence and human trafficking, and ensure equitable, inclusive, and culturally appropriate access to services and opportunities. The specific objectives are: (i) Strengthen women's economic autonomy and promote the equitable redistribution of care work through the piloting and scaling up of income-generation and labor-market access initiatives, the development of financial-inclusion instruments, and the enhancement of institutional capacities for the provision of care services and the promotion of opportunities for caregivers. (ii) Strengthen institutional response and community capacities for the prevention of gender-based violence and human trafficking, through the consolidation of the Registration and Monitoring System (SALVIA) and cultural-change strategies; and (iii) Improve equitable, inclusive, and culturally appropriate access to essential services for Indigenous, Afro-descendant, and persons with disabilities, through the strengthening of institutional capacities and information systems for planning and adaptation of services.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
