Project Description

According to the IDB Invest, the general objective of the IDB Invest WE Finance Code Pilot proposal is to create a sustainable shift in how women entrepreneurs are accounted for, perceived, and served by the financial sector in the DR by (i) building the capacity of financial institutions and the banking association to collect, generate, use and report on sex-disaggregated data for women's financial inclusion; (ii) promoting the coordinated aggregation of private-sector gender portfolio-level and financial data for industry-level reporting; (iii) piloting private-sector commitments and the leverage of a champion to promote data-disaggregation and increased financing opportunities for women entrepreneurs among financial intermediaries, and; (iv) leading the learning agenda, developing and implementing diagnostic tools, strategies, new processes, products, services, or initiatives--as appropriate--associated with commitments made.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
