Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective is to support the design and preparation of the first operation of the Resilient Connectivity Program for National Productivity (CCLIP), aligned with the Plan Nacional RD2036, which aims to contribute to national economic growth by strengthening the connectivity of the transportation and logistics network through improvements in infrastructure quality, road safety, and climate resilience. The CT will support the assessment of logistics and production corridors, the development of high-quality pre-investment studies on transportation, logistics, and trade facilitation that are resilient to the impacts of climate change, and the necessary technical training to enable the structuring of high-impact strategic projects.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
