Project Description

As of the time of writing, the Inter-American Development Bank has released little information on this project. According to the website, the objective of this technical cooperation is "to support the exchange of experiences between the Ministry of Education (MINED) of El Salvador with the Ministry of Education and the National Institute for Educational Evaluation (INVAL) of Ecuador to learn about internal and external evaluations of the National Education System, specifically the teaching topic." To accomplish this, a team of five people with competences in teaching policy and evaluations from El Salvador will visit the Ecuadorian city of Quito.

Investment Description

- Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

The Bank will give US$9,340.00 in ordinary capital toward this project.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
