Knowledge Exchange of the National Housing Policy in Colombia and the Programs of Social Housing and Integral Urban Projects Promoted from the City of Medellin

Project Description

The objective of technical cooperation is to support the exchange of experiences between the Ministry of Housing of El Salvador with the Ministry of Housing of Colombia to: (a) organize meetings with the national government of Colombia to discuss the experience of housing policy in the country and social housing programs promoted by the Ministry of Housing; and (b) with the local government of Medellín to learn about the projects that transform the city, as well as the integral relationships that address social imbalances in it. The focus of the visits will be the integral urban projects, mobility strategies and public space, the programs of integral improvement of neighborhoods in conflict zones and territorial strategies aimed at reducing crime.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
