As part of the design process of the Forest Investment Program (FIP) Investment Plan for Guatemala, the government will carry out an exchange to analyze the lessons learned by the Government of Mexico during the development and implementation of its Investment Plan. The operation seeks to share the country's experience in the design and configuration of the Mexican Climate Change Fund, and discuss its potential application in the Guatemalan context.

This is a non-reimbursable technical cooperation investment of USD 14,268.

The requested funds will be used to finance travel costs and per diem of six government's officials (from INAB, MAGA, SEGEPLAN, MINFIN, MARN), so that they will strengthen their knowledge and learn, in situ, from the successful Mexican experience.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
