Project Description

From the IDB: "The objective of this technical cooperation is to contribute to closing knowledge gaps with respect to the determinants and risk factors of VAW in Haiti and its prevention through increased access to opportunities in health, education and labor markets. The specific objectives are to: i) generate quality data on women's safety and access to economic opportunities; ii) produce evidence on the effectiveness of interventions to prevent VAW in rural communities; iii) contribute to the design a financially sustainable model of integrated services to women and iv) promote a multi-sectorial policy dialogue with policymakers on gender equality issues."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
