Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of this project is to improve the institutional readiness of the National Police College of Jamaica (NPCJ) through accredited training, research, and technology-facilitated innovation, positioning it as the first Regional Centre of Policing Excellence in the Caribbean. By advancing quality standards of institutional excellence over a 3-year program of support, NPCJ will serve the Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF), local law enforcement agencies as well as those of the wider Caribbean to improve their training offerings to better address the dynamic security challenges facing the region such as transnational organized crime, domestic violence, and natural disasters. The specific objectives of this TC are to: (i) strengthen the administrative and governance mechanisms within NPCJ to ensure innovation and sustainability; and (ii) support the collaborative design and use of context-appropriate courses and learning resources.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
