Financial Innovation in Rural Areas to Increase Mexico's Resilience to Climate Change - Support for Ecosystem-Based Agriculture Projects

Project Description

According to the IADB, the general development objective of the program is to support the climate resilience of small Agricultural Production Units (APU) by increasing the adoption of Ecosystems-based Adaptation (EbA) practices in nine states of Mexico. The specific development objective is to expand financing for small APUs through the implementation of a guarantee scheme focused on EbA practices.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
