Project Description

Assess the impacts of climate change on the health of the population, as well as integrate climate-related health risks into national planning processes for health services. The study will analyze historical data to determine the correlation between climate-related diseases and climate indicators, and, based on these findings, will make projections under different climate change scenarios and recommendations to consider climate change in national and sub-national planning instruments. Therefore, the operation seeks to strengthen the national health systems, and protect and promote the health of the population to boost its resilience.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
