Project Description

This technical cooperation will provide continuity to the interventions financed by operations RG-G1024 and RG-G1025 on the Peruvian side of the Colombian-Peruvian border of the Amazon trapeze. Specifically, it will finance actions that maintain the process of strengthening of the binational cocoa and fish farming value chains in Peruvian side of the Colombian-Peruvian border of the Amazon trapeze. More specifically, the objective of this technical cooperation is to improve the levels of competitiveness of the agroforestry cocoa value chains, as well as fishing and fish farming in the province of Ramon Castilla, through the strengthening of associative forms, strengthening their Insertion into the dynamics of regional sustainable development and border integration, managing sustainable models of production and commercialization of cocoa derivatives and Amazonian fish, which respond to the challenges of formal and legal production, in risk contexts. This TC will contribute to revitalize the local economy and therefore the quality of life of the families of the producers on the border of the Ramon Castilla province.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
