Project Description

According to the Inter-American Development Bank, the obejctive of this project is to support the Ministry of Social Development (MIDES) in its efforts to improve the efficiency of social protection spending.

The project has four components to achieve the objective:

1. Continue the development of the transitional system, which the Bank says is key to ensuring the management of the information of the Legal Framework of the Conditional Cash Transfer Programs (PTMC) until the full implementation of the National Assembly of Panama (RENAB) is achieved
2. Automate, using the Transitory System, the process of verification of the co-responsibilities in health and education of the PTMC-Oportunidades Network
3. Support to the institutional reorganisation of MIDES which aims to streamline the ministry's operational processes
4. Evaluate the new targeting mechanism and the recertification process of the PTMC.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
