Investment Description

- Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

The CCLIP will be up to US $ 300 million, will be 12 years long, and will consist of three individual global credit investment loan operations. The first will be a US $ 100 million loan and a 4 years tenure period. The subsequent ones for amounts of approximately US $ 100 million and durations of around 4 years. The first individual operation will be financed by a Global Credit Investment Loan denominated in United States dollars with a charge to Ordinary Capital (CO) resources.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

- Fondo Financiero para el Desarrollo de la Cuenca del Plata (FONPLATA) (Financial Intermediary)

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
