Mexican Facility for Integration Infrastructure in Mesoamerica and the Caribbean (MEXINFINT)

Project Description

The general objective of this facility is to deepen the productive integration of Mesoamerican and Caribbean countries through the strengthening of integration infrastructure, cross-border connectivity and regional integration corridors. This includes roads, ports, airports, border crossings and their multimodal logistics interconnectivity, and energy and telecommunications connectivity, among others. The specific objectives are: i) To facilitate the mobilization and leverage of more IDB resources committed to investment in strategic integration infrastructure projects for Mesoamerican and Caribbean countries through IDB loans and grants with support from borrowing member countries and donors; ii) Strengthen regulatory and procedural frameworks and harmonize them among countries so that integration infrastructure projects can function seamlessly among them and realize the full potential of their economic and social returns; Strengthen the institutional capacities of public- and private-sector operators of integration infrastructure.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
