Project Description

From the IADB:

The objective of this Technical Cooperation project is to support the efforts of local governments to promote the development of tools for open data and transparency that may improve the provision of public services and social inclusion, based on the experience of GobApp. Based on the experience developed by the GobApp Laboratory and the concept of a "toolbox for transparency", the project will provide governments with the development of three high impact applications capable of being adapted to different contexts and which aim to improve transparency, participation, social inclusion, access to public services and contribute to respond to the development challenges of the beneficiary communities.

Investment Description

- Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)

This Technical Cooperation has a total cost of US$200,000, to be funded by the IADB.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
