Project Description

From the IADB:

"The objective of this Technical Cooperation is to finance preparatory studies for the action plans and pre-investment studies, which foster the proper development of strategic alliances and alternative models of implementation of the Emerging and Sustainable Cities' methodology that have been developed with different actors of the region. Also, this Technical Cooperation will support the execution of studies and activities that facilitate the continuous improvement of the methodological tool of the initiative and its consolidation as a regional public good. The final objective is to promote environmental sustainability, fiscal and governance sustainability, and integrated and sustainable urban development in the cities of the region. This operation is the continuation of the multisectoral effort that has been strengthening the Emerging and Sustainable Cities (ESCI), which will improve the quality of life of the inhabitants of LAC in the long term."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
