Local housing solutions and private sector involvement: Korean experience for LAC cities

Local housing solutions and private sector involvement: Korean experience for LAC cities

Quick Facts

Financial Institutions	Inter-American Development Bank (IADB)
Status	Proposed
Bank Risk Rating	U
Sectors	Construction, Technical Cooperation
Investment Type(s)	Grant

Project Description

From the IDB: "The objective of this Technical Cooperation (TC) is to propose housing interventions at the local level that take into account the provision of well-located land with urban services and engage the private sector through partnerships. Policy implications will be drawn from a diagnosis of land management tools and shelter problems of low-income housing in Metropolitan areas. Additionally, sharing Korean development experiences such as supplying decent and affordable housing, and realizing housing welfare with Latin America and Caribbean (LAC) countries will contribute to reduce poverty in the long term and foster inclusive and sustainable cities."

Investment Description

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
