Project Description

The main objective of this TC is to use results obtained from time series analysis and survey methods to place masculinity on the public policy agenda in the Caribbean. The data will provide empirical evidence on male youth decision-makings in critical areas, inform national policies and support the Bank in the design of projects intended for the Caribbean region. The specific objective of the TC is to (i) assess the extent to which concepts of manhood influence young men's life decisions as well as their behaviors and attitudes on gender; and (ii) analyze gender gaps in educational attainment and employment paths during a 25 years period.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
