Project Description

According to the IDB, the general objective of this Facility is to support the socio-economic integration of migrants and returned emigrants, with a particular focus on women and children, in eligible countries across Latin America and the Caribbean. This support is provided through financing non-reimbursable technical cooperation operations (TCs) and investment grants operations (IGRs) as standalone initiatives or in conjunction with an IDB loan. Each project under this initiative should aim to enhance the capacity of national and/or local governments as well as public or private service providers. These projects will focus on developing mechanisms to ensure inclusive and gender-responsive protection, access to essential social services, and opportunities for economic advancement.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
