Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective is to contribute to the sustainable and resilient improvement of rural water and sanitation services in Latin America and the Caribbean, through the development, piloting, and systematization of differentiated approaches, operational tools, and institutional strengthening processes that support countries in consolidating a robust sectoral ecosystem. This ecosystem should integrate public policies, regulatory frameworks, and effective management instruments adapted to the rural context and focused on vulnerable populations.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
