Strengthening Conservation Trust Funds (CTF) in Latin America and Caribbean (LAC), and Amazonia, to support conservation financial mechanisms

Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective is to strengthen the institutional capacity of new and existing RedLAC members -with particular activities in support of Amazonian Conservation Trust Fund (CTF) - in order to ensure an adequate governance structure for the use of the conservation resource by: (1) strengthening RedLAC's institutional capacity by supporting the Executive Secretariat in the management of the network; (2) assessing RedLAC members' capacity against the Practice Standards for CTFs ; and supporting the implementation of the recommendations for improvement derived from the assessments; as well as (3) providing capacity building activities for RedLAC members to meet international standard practices that allows them to implement innovative finance mechanisms.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html (Spanish).
