Project Description

According to the IADB, the Objective of this regional technical cooperation is to support the effective implementation and execution of the IDB CLIMA Pilot Program, as approved by the Board, with a focus on delivering results, completing pilot activities, and capturing lessons learned. IDB CLIMA is a Pilot Program with a results-based approach that rewards countries (upon achievement of three KPIs) that invest in the necessary capacities to access financing from thematic and green debt. The adoption of the Pilot Program implies the development of different tools, research products and dissemination activities. Specifically, resources from this TC will be employed to: (i) support the consolidation and operationalization of the Green Transition Framework (GTF) approach and its instruments; (ii) develop, implement, test, support, and learn from the deployment of both Program-level and Project-level Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL) approaches; (iii) carry out analytical work and applied research to incorporate of lessons learned as the IDB CLIMA Pilot Program is being implemented; and (iv) conduct needed corporate-level and country-driven trainings, capacity building and knowledge dissemination efforts to assist the deployment of the IDB CLIMA Pilot.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
