Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of this technical cooperation (TC) project is to support the region in the development of long-term care policies and systems, that increase the quality of life of older persons and promote gender equality through the reduction of the burden of care for women. More specifically, the TC will: (i) support the functioning of the Long-Term Care Policy Network in Latin America and the Caribbean (RedCUIDAR+); (ii) produce and disseminate knowledge on long-term care. In both cases, the project will foster the participation of experts familiar with Japan long-term care policies, services and innovations.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
